Reports

(Student Council Rep and Staff Rep not present at this meeting)

Principal's Report

EQAO grade 9 math this week, test is worth 10% of each student's final mark.

Arts Night went well and was comprised of visual arts, drama and music

Athletic Banquet was well attended

“Fun in the Sun Day” took place on a Friday afternoon, but since too many students left the school after the morning classes and missed the event, the format will be changed so that next year the students will return to afternoon classes after the event.

Grad BBQ – administration staff cooked for the graduates.

Credit Rescue yesterday – students who had not yet completed assignments spent the day in a classroom with teachers to help them finish the work required for their credit.

Character Recognition Night at the Board Office – nominee, Elise Durie, won the lottery to receive recognition.

Excellence in Education Night – those recognized included volunteer (Chris Tucker) and 3 students (Lindsay Battaglia, Mackenzie Cullip, Joe Sammon)

Relay for Life - partnered with Jean Vanier to successfully raise over $60,000.00 as well as awareness of the cause.

3 staff retiring this year, and more staff being hired.

Commencement - June 29th at Curling Club with record number of grads – approx. 280.

Each graduate has 2 guest tickets and extra tickets will be given via a lottery to those interested. Help is needed for that day. Action – contact Tori if available to help with setting up and cleaning chairs.

“Canada 150” – wood mural is being constructed as a permanent installation for July 1 Centennial Standard - 50 years ago, CCI had a relay team that carried the standard.

Arrangements are being made for a relay team of current CCI runners to do this again on Labour Day, with a member of the previous relay team of 50 years ago.

Staples - $20,000 of equipment that CCI's Entrepreneurial class won has been set up in a special collaboration room that the students have designed

Staples has extended their program of reduced rates for technology to June 30

Privacy Breach – letter sent home in May was reviewed and questions asked.

Ms. Scime was not able to expand beyond the contents of the letter as the matter is currently under police investigation.
